Insects are really important. They keep our gardens clean because they eat dead leaves and other waste[1]. They are also an important food for birds and other animals. Some insects, like bees, even make food – honey.

TOP Tourist Attractions

Every year, millions of tourists come to London to see and listen to Big Ben. But what exactly is Big Ben?

Most people think that Big Ben is the tall clock tower that stands above the Houses of Parliament. Well no! Big Ben is not the clock tower. It is one of the four huge bells inside the tower. Its name comes from the bell's Commissioner of Works, Sir Benjamin Hall, or Ben. The tower is over 96 metres high. The bell inside the tower is 14 tons. The clock on the tower is also huge. Each of the four clockfaces is 7 metres wide. The hour hands are about 3 metres long and the minute hands are about 4 metres long.

Britain

In Britain, we have a party to celebrate our birthdays. Everyone brings a small gift. My mum always makes me a birthday cake. We have a table full of food, crisps, sandwiches, small cakes and chocolate biscuits, ice cream and very small sausages you eat on a stick. I just love them. We decorate the house with balloons and I play party games with my friends. It's fantastic.
John (12)

China

Birthday celebrations are very special in China. We eat very long noodles that mean we will have a long life. I eat them in soup and try not to cut them because it's unlucky! We also eat red eggs. Red is a special colour in China. It always means something happy and brings good luck. We decorate the house with red paper and all the family comes for a party. We also get money in red envelopes. It's fun.

DANGER!

Keeping clean:
Don't let pets in the kitchen. Always wash your hands well before you touch any food. Clean the work surfaces well to keep bacteria away!

Preparing food:
Wash fruit and vegetables well. Never chop raw[1] meat and then use the same knife for other food – to cut your bread, for example. There are lots of dangerous bacteria on raw meat. Use sharp knives and chop very carefully.

Storing food:
Bacteria can't live in the cold, but they love warm kitchens! Always keep raw meat, cooked food and dairy products like milk, cheese and yoghurt in the fridge. Don't put other food next to raw meat!

Homes

Russia's open-air museums show us wooden buildings from long ago. One very famous museum is Kizhi, on a beautiful island in Lake Onega (Onezhskoye) in Karelia. But there are many others.

Spotlight on Russia visits the museums at Malye Korely and Vitoslavlitsy near Novgorod.

Here we are at Malye Korely, near Arkhangelsk.

This is a typical izba. It's a small wooden country house with just one or two rooms. The family room is a bedroom, kitchen and living room all in one. There isn't a bathroom, but there is a wooden sauna (banya) outside.

This is the 'beautiful corner' (krasny), with the family icon and a special table for guests.

Now we're at Vitoslavlitsy. Let's look inside the 1882 izba from Ryshevo.

There is a large clay oven (pech') in the corner near the door. There are sleeping benches (polaty) above the oven.

There are low benches along the other walls, one or two tables, and a cupboard for dishes.

ACTIVITIES

- Use the text to tell your English-speaking pen friend about a typical Russian izba or a historical house in your region.
- Draw or photograph some old buildings and send your pictures to us, with a short description.

Folk Stories

This is part of an email to the Spotlight on Russia website. It's from Jeanne Lefevre in Paris.

My hobby is collecting dolls. I've got a matryoshka with a painting of the "Snow Maiden" on each doll. Can you tell me more about the Snow Maiden?

Spotlight on Russia tells a traditional story.

Dear Jeanne,
"Snegurochka", or "The Snow Maiden", is a well-known Russian folk tale. Here's our favourite version.

Snegurochka (The Snow Maiden)

An old man and his wife had no children. They were very sad about this. "Let's make a child out of snow," said the man one day.

They made a pretty snow-girl. "Look!" said the woman. "Her lips are red and her eyes are open!" The snow-girl was alive!

The old couple were very happy. They called their new daughter Snegurochka. She was kind and polite. But she was pale and shy.

Summer came. Snegurochka was not well. "Go out to play," her parents said. They were worried.

Snegurochka went to the forest with her friends. But is was very hot, and Snegurochka wasn't happy.

"Let's jump over a fire," the girls said. Snegurochka jumped – and melted. She was gone forever.

DISCUSS

- Is this the version of Snegurochka you know?
- What are your/your friends' hobbies?

ACTIVITIES

- Read the text aloud.
- Cover the text. Use the pictures to tell the class the story of Snegurochka.
- Write to Spotlight on Russia and tell us your favourite folk tale. Draw pictures for it too!

Animals

The bear is a national symbol of Russia. There are lots of folk tales about this strong and clever animal. But Russian bears aren't all the same. The Kamchatka brown bear isn't like Siberian bears.

Spotlight on Russia looks at ...

KAMCHATKA'S GENTLE GIANTS

Kamchatka is a wild land of volcanoes, forests and lakes. It is also home to thousands of Kamchatka brown bears.

The Kamchatka brown bear is very, VERY big. It can weigh more than 450 kg. When it stands up, it can be 2.50 m tall. It is very strong, with big teeth and long, sharp claws.

Unlike Siberian bears, these big animals are usually very peaceful. For most of the year they live in thick forests and eat berries, nuts and roots.

In the summer months, millions of salmon swim up Kamchatka's rivers from the sea. These fish are the bears' favourite food. Bears travel hundreds of kilometres to live next to the rivers and catch the salmon. Bears are very good swimmers, and their thick fur keeps them warm in the ice-cold water.

When summer finishes, the bears go back to the forest. There they make a warm den[1] where they can spend the winter.

Family Time

At the weekend, Russian people like to enjoy their free time. Whatever they do, they like to be with the people who are most important to them – their children or their parents.

Spotlight on Russia spends the weekend with three typical Russian families

A The Popov family enjoys cultural activities. At weekends, they always go to museums, theatres, and music concerts. Nine-year old Galina's favourite trip is to a science museum!

B On Saturdays and Sundays, the Semenov family normally spends time in nature. They go for long walks in the countryside or do sports in parks. In winter, they go skiing. Ten-year-old Ivan also likes family bicycle-rides.

C At the end of the week, the members of the Orlov family love relaxing by doing sport. However, on rainy days, they enjoy staying at home and read a book or play board games together. Eleven-year old twins, Irina and Sasha, love reading adventure stories with their mum.

Read the texts (A-C) and match them to the pictures (1-3). What does each family enjoy doing?

1 Natalia Manuilova – 11 years old

C The sun is shining, but there's a lot of snow. A child is skiing, and another child is making a snowman.

Dear Spotlight on Russia
Hi! We're in Class 4C at Wood End School in South London.
We're doing a school project about celebrations around the world.
Can you tell us about a special Russian celebration?

Read the answer from Class 5 at a Moscow school. They've got great photographs too!

We're dancing around Lady Maslenitsa.

We're having a tug-of-war in the snow.

Maslenitsa

Spring Festival

'Maslenitsa' is the week before Lent. It's when Russians say goodbye to winter and welcome spring. It's a time of singing, dancing and fun. There's a lot to eat, too – especially blinis which are delicious butter pancakes.

Children dress up[1] and play in the snow. We go for sleigh rides, go sledging, have snowball fights and lots more. We make a straw doll of 'Lady Maslenitsa' who is dressed in special clothes. On Sunday evening, we burn Lady Maslenitsa on a big bonfire. The spring festival is over and Lent begins.

Song Sheets

Module 1

1 Read the title of the song. What do you think the song is about? Listen, read and check.

Time for School

Bring your notepad, bring your pens,
bring your schoolbag too.
Bring your books, call your friends,
bring them all with you.

It's time for school, hooray, hooray!
Hurry up, it's my first day.
It's time for school, it's lots of fun.
School is great for everyone.

English, maths and history,
art and science, too
music and geography are fun for me and you.

2 What school subjects can you find in the song? Read and check.

3 Which school objects can you see in the pictures? What things do you bring to school?

Module 3

1 Read the title of the song. Think of two reasons why home is 'sweet'.

Home, Sweet Home

I run home from school each day.
I don't want to be late.
And, when I get home sweet home,
I always feel so great.

Home is full of happiness;
the perfect place for me.
Home is always full of love.
It's where I want to be.

When I walk through the door,
I always stop and smile.
All my problems disappear –
just for a little while.

2 Listen and read. Does the singer feel the same way about home as you do?

3 What does the singer mean when he says his "home is always full of love"?

Module 5

1 Read the title of the song. How is it related to the song? Listen and read to find out.

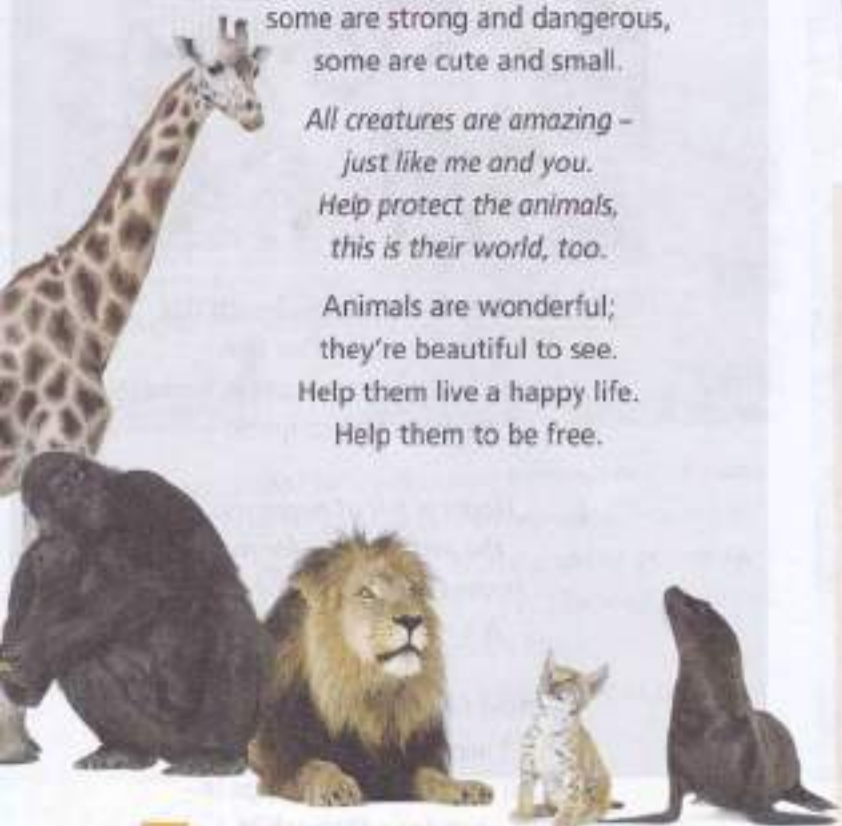

Amazing Creatures

The world is full of animals.
Some are big and tall,
some are strong and dangerous,
some are cute and small.

All creatures are amazing –
just like me and you.
Help protect the animals,
this is their world, too.

Animals are wonderful;
they're beautiful to see.
Help them live a happy life.
Help them to be free.

2 Look at the pictures. Which animal is big, tall, strong, dangerous, small, cute?

3 Why are animals "amazing", according to the singer? Why should we help them?

4 Which is your favourite animal?

Module 7

1 Name the seasons. Match the words to each season.

• very hot • green grass • blue sky
• swim • snow • rain • white

Listen and check.

Seasons Change

When spring is here, the world is new;
the grass is green, the sky is blue.
When summer comes, it's very hot;
We can play and swim a lot.

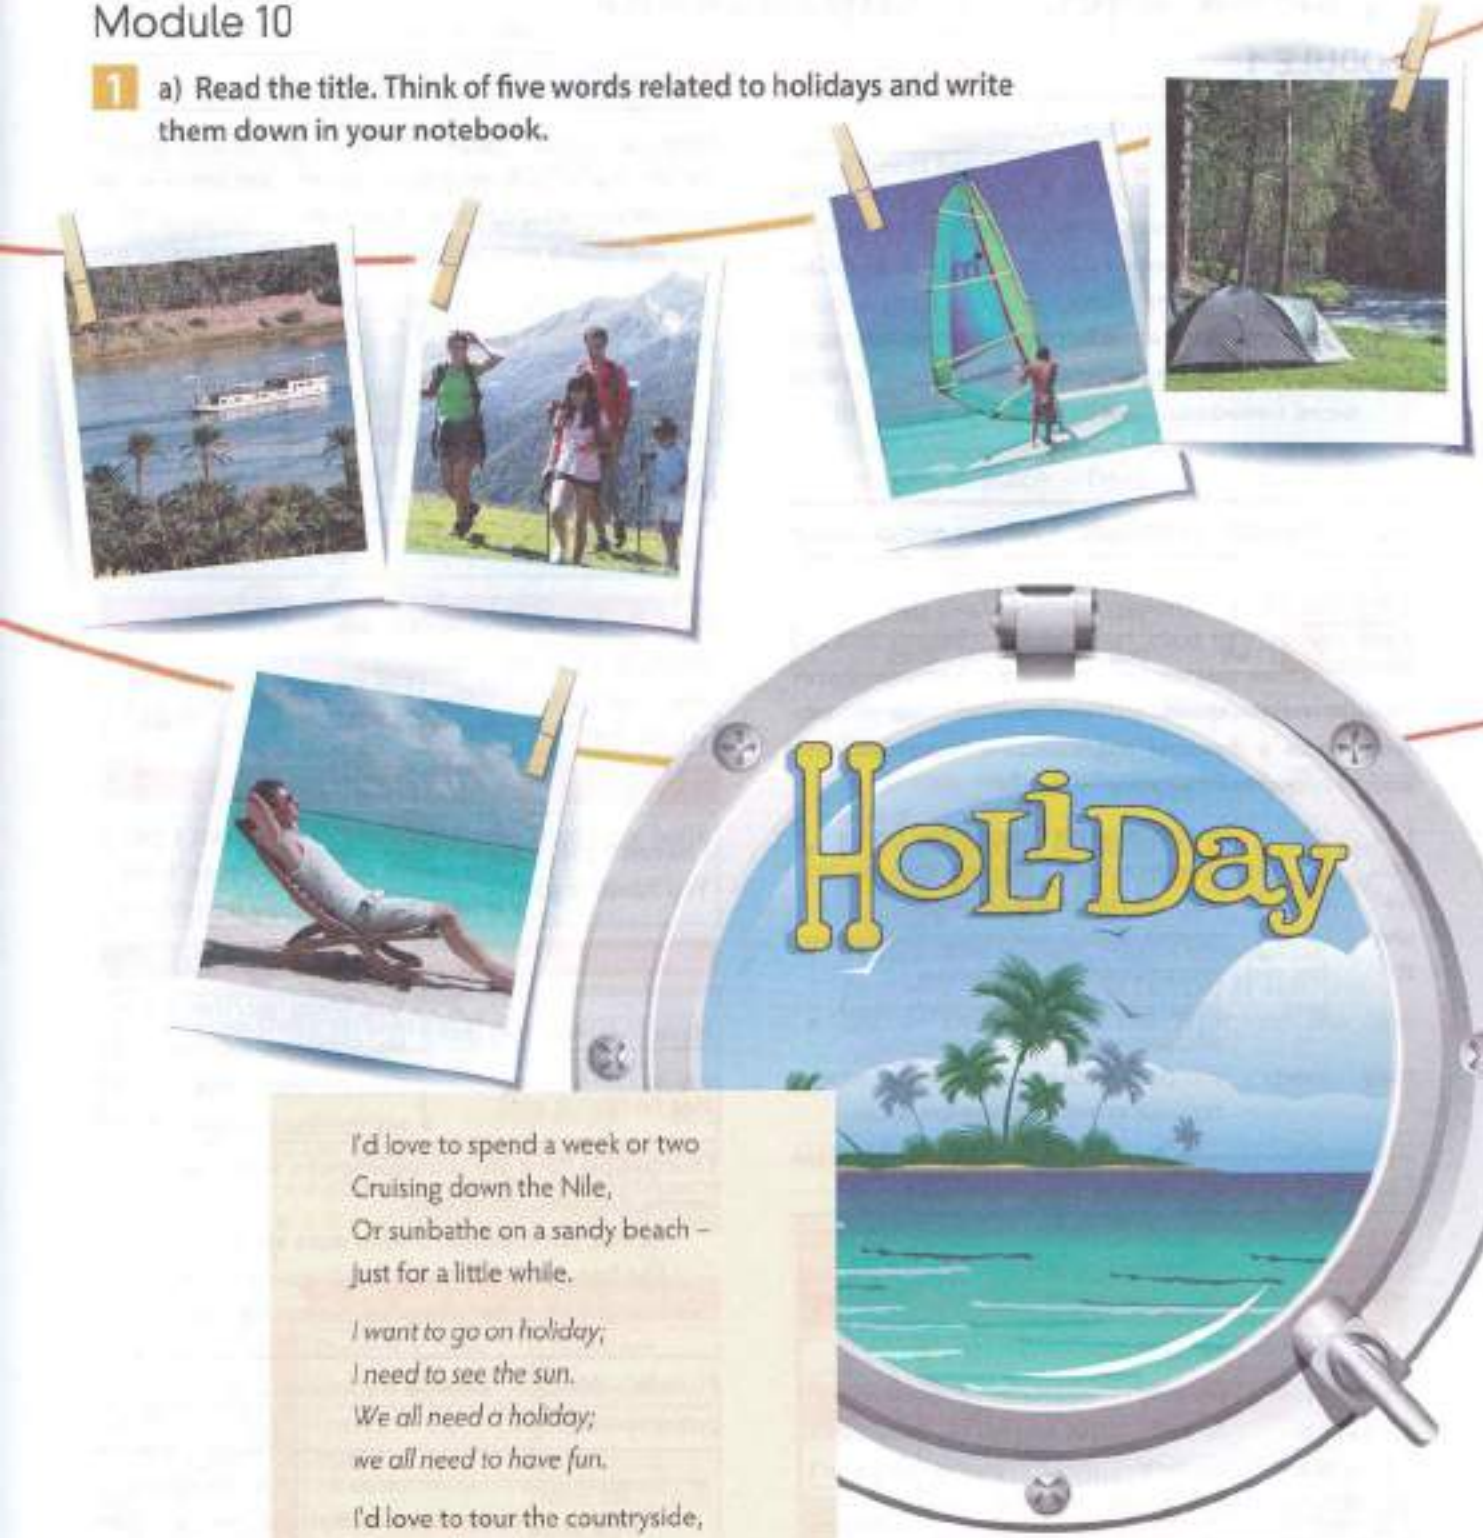

The seasons change before our eyes.
Each season brings a new surprise.
The seasons change, they bring such joy for every girl and every boy.

When autumn's here, there's wind and rain –
It's time to stay indoors again.
When winter comes, the world is white.
Snow is such a lovely sight.

2 Read the song. What does 'The seasons change before our eyes' mean?

3 Which words/phrases from Ex. 1 best describe each picture?

1 a) Read the title. Think of five words related to holidays and write them down in your notebook.

I'd love to spend a week or two
Cruising down the Nile,
Or sunbathe on a sandy beach –
Just for a little while.

I want to go on holiday;
I need to see the sun.
We all need a holiday;
we all need to have fun.

I'd love to tour the countryside,
Or camp beside the sea,
Or go hiking in the mountains.
Why don't you come with me?

b) Listen and read. Which of the words in your list are in the song?

2 How many different sorts of holidays can you find in the song? Which is your favourite?

3 How does the song make you feel?
